

NOT just another _____ EDUCATION

publication

EDUCATION EXECUTIVE

business intelligence for bursars, school managers & senior administrators issue 1

ARE YOU SITTING COMFORTABLY?

Teachers are not the first thing that comes to mind when thinking about TV, but from the beginning of 2005 they will have their own channel.

To the MAX

A report on the National Bursars Association's third annual conference

A tale of two bursars

WE COMPARE THE ROLES OF BURSARS
IN CITY AND COUNTRY SCHOOLS

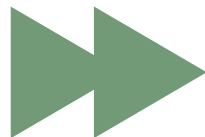

Education Executive
is a National Bursars Association
approved partner

looks like
our readers agree!

Now that Education Executive has hit desks, we thought you may be interested to hear just a few of the comments we received in response to Issue 1.

Take a look overleaf at what school decision makers had to say about the magazine...

Here's just a few of the comments we received in response to the first issue of Education Executive....

Thank you for the copy of Education Executive. I found the magazine very informative and interesting. The articles are thought-provoking and highly relevant to working in a large secondary school. I look forward to receiving further copies during the coming months.

Hazel Oag

Business Director
Daventry William Parker School
Northamptonshire

Thanks very much for issue 1 which I received today, such prompt service. Well done... it appears to be really interesting and I am sure that this will be a great opportunity to share good practice within the business management of the education sector. I look forward to reading more and receiving issue 2.

Duncan Thomas

Administration Manager Excellence in Cities Manchester

A great magazine, very professional. Well done to you and the team.

William Simmonds
Chief Executive
National Bursars Association

I would like to congratulate you on your first issue of Education Executive, it is a refreshing and informative magazine. I wish you well.

Suzanne Cooper

Bursar and Clerk to the Governor Queen Eleanor Technology College, Stamford in Lincolnshire.

I have just received a copy of your Education Executive magazine and I must say it is very impressive. Thank you. It's good to see that the role of Bursar, etc is now expanding and getting recognised as a professional role.

Lorna Wilson MBA

Bursar
The Bluecoat School
Stamford, Lincolnshire